Re: SkyWest Pilots ALPA Organizing Committee, et al. v. SkyWest Airlines, Inc.,
U.S. District Court, N.D. Cal., Case No. C-07-2688 (CRB)

Dear Counsel,

We are disappointed that you have been unwilling to cooperate with us and comply with the Court's order in releasing Captain Alford from all of his flight duty on June 6, 2007. As previously set forth in my letter of June 3 (inadvertently dated on the first page June 1), you are not releasing Captain Alford until much too late in the afternoon the day before the hearing. The earliest Captain Alford could arrive at San Francisco International Airport is 7:28 pm, well after the close of business. As you know, the Court required and SkyWest committed on the record, in open court, to releasing pilots so that they can prepare for the hearing. (5/24/07 Tr. at 47.) "Releasing" Captain Alford so that he can only arrive in San Francisco late the evening before the hearing is not compliance with the Court's order.

The bottom line is that we need to meet with Captain Alford during business hours on June 6, 2007 in order to ensure an orderly, efficient hearing with numerous witnesses on both sides the next day. And the Court's order gives us the right to do so.

Since Captain Alford is not working on June 7, and because SkyWest did not release Captain Alford from any duty in connection with the original preliminary injunction hearing date, June 6 is the only day for which SkyWest will be releasing Captain Alford in connection with this case.

We trust that you will comply with the Court's order as we would prefer not to trouble the Court with this matter. But we will have no choice but to do so, if SkyWest does not release Captain Alford so we can adequately prepare. Please confirm by noon PDT today that you will be releasing Captain Alford.

Sincerely,
